A Resolution in Support of Increasing Student Health Service's Space on Campus

Presented by Brenna Lin on March 20, 2018

- Whereas: The Graduate and Professional Student Council exists to govern and to serve as the voice of all graduate and professional students at Texas A&M University.
- Whereas: Texas A&M Student Health Services exists to advance student development and academic success by providing personalized and evidence-based healthcare to Aggies.
- Whereas: The A.P. Beutel Health Center was constructed in 1973 when 18,000 students were enrolled.
- Whereas: The last additions to the Beutel building were made in 1986, when 36,000 students were enrolled.
- Whereas: The current student body population, on College Station campus, is 56,827<sup>1</sup>.
- Whereas: Campus architects and engineers do not allow Student Health Services to build out (needed for parking) or up (needed for increasing services).
- And
Whereas: Additional space is needed to improve and expand general medical and current ancillary services (physical therapy, lab, radiology, dietitian) as well as brings in additional auxiliary services (optometry, dental, etc.) for the increasing student body.
